

BigStep develops native iOS Apps in SWIFT and native Android Apps in Java. We've got full-scale app development capabilities, and have worked with entrepreneurs, start-ups as well as established organizations. We've also built online community & e-commerce products, that are powering more than 6500 websites and more than 300 mobile apps.

Get in touch with us at: info@bigsteptech.com for your app development requirements.

Some of the native iOS and Android Mobile Apps developed by BigStep

Cancer.im

Movie Factory

This is Social Network on Cancer Research. Network includes direct communications amongst the other users. You can find Caretaker, survivors, researchers, therapists over this network. Create research studies, Share your experiences and findings to generate awareness.

Movie Factory is 100% Dedicated Movie Industry Network for creating movies, accessing talent, pre / post production roles, service providers, industry professionals. Some of the great features on this network are Events, Groups, Articles Classifieds, Forums, Entertainment and Crowdfunding Listings and a lot more.

ExposedNet.Org

ExposedNet is a great place to interact with people around the world, to share opinions, conspiracies, alien theories, government lies, human and animal rights abuse. This network, using the plugins: Events, Forums, Blogs etc, allows users to read latest alternative news, post articles and blogs, provide research studies on a variety of subjects.

Bivbo

Bivbo is a social network that connects people around the world and helps the community connect freely and in a timely manner. You can have real time chat, audio and video calls to your friends and see what's new in their lives, share photos, watch videos, listen to music, chat with friends.

Socialnet

Socialnet where social commerce comes alive! This is not just a social networking site, it is a Social Commerce platform, where you can set up store, post classifies, engage in online discussion forum, run your own survey, create pages, groups, events, connect with friends and share your thoughts with the community.

One Africa

One-Africa is a platform with a social component, which can be geared towards promotion and marketing needs of organizations or businesses. One-Africa platform drives a large number of members, but also supports the creation of online groups, partnerships and thus offers to its participants and affiliates an unprecedented window and visibility to the world.

Areebia

Areebia is a pioneered social network that empowers you to connect and share content with the people in the Middle East. Allow you to upload photos, post links, videos, and music, using features like Groups, Events, Pages, use spontaneous real-time text / audio / video chat.

InvestaSpace

InvestaSpace makes it easy for Entrepreneurs to communicate with each other. InvestaSpace provides discount platform for entrepreneurs to promote their products and services to their customers and other members. Our full featured feed will guarantee you keep in contact with other like-minded entrepreneurs.

These apps might not have all the features provided by our products, as that depends on the client's and their community's requirements. To check out the complete features, please check out our demo apps:

DEMO APPS

Whether you have a social networking website, a niche community, an online store, an informational website, an educational website or any other type of online community, our mobile app products can suit your requirements.